worth reading not so much for positive results as because it contains many acute and valuable remarks upon the Bible and present discussions of it by a cultured Christian man—and that man, Mr. Gladstone. The publisher has issued it in very good taste; clear type, broad margins and an excellent frontispiece of Mr. Gladstone with an autograph letter, making it an attractive volume.

The Epistles to the Thessalonians.

The Cambridge Bible for Schools and Colleges. The Epistles to the Thessalonians: with Introduction, Notes and Map. By the Rev. George G. Findlay, B. A. New York: MacMillan and Co. Pp. 183. Price, 50 cts.

The latest issue of this valuable series shows no falling off in character or contents, unless it may be in the map which is not so artistic and clear as those in former volumes. Very full introductions are supplied by Prof. Findlay, discussing (1) the city of Thessalonica, (2) how the Gospel came to Thessalonica, (3) the Gospel of Paul at Thessalonica (already printed, by the way, as an article in the Expositor), (4) the occasion of the two Epistles, (5) their genuineness, (6) their style and character, (7) Analysis and digest (this latter a new and valuable feature). In an Appendix of eleven pages a detailed historical exposition is given of the great problem of these Epistles—the Man of Lawlessness (or Man of Sin). Prof. Findlay finds himself in general agreement with the views of Dorner, Olshausen, Riggenbach, Alford, Ellicott and Eadie upon the question. The commentary will add to its author's growing reputation as a biblical scholar and reflect credit on this excellent series of books.

The Epistle to the Galatians.

The Cambridge Bible for Schools and Colleges. The Epistle to the Galatians, with Introduction and Notes. By the Rev. E. H. Perowne, D. D. New York: MacMillan and Co. Pp. xxviii., 91.

A sound and useful commentary in brief compass is given by Dr. Perowne in this volume. It pursues the same course along the same lines as those which previous volumes of the Cambridge Bible have made familiar to the student. The Introduction is lucid and full, and an appendix contains some detailed discussions of special passages and a consideration of Paul's Arabian sojourn. The judgments expressed and interpretations given are largely those of Bishop Lightfoot in his ample and unrivalled Commentary, but they show independent study and thought, on the part of Dr. Perowne.
